the laborers of the Northeast have established a Labor University at Chiamussu (130-21, 46-49). The purpose of the school is to train Northeast vocational workers in industrial and business management, in technical knowledge, and for political work. The University temporarily will offer a regular four months' course and various two months' training courses.

2. Enrollment in the regular course is expected to be 1200 men and 250 women. Anyone who is willing to work for the labor movement may enroll in the University's regular course provided he comes within one of the following categories:
 - a. A member of a labor cadre who is recommended by his local labor union.
 - b. A student in a two months' training course who has made an excellent record.
 - c. A specialist.
3. Enrollment in the training courses is limited to laborers who have been certified by their local labor unions.
4. Oral and written entrance examinations are given covering general intelligence, previous work, and history (? personal).
5. All living expenses and books are to be furnished by the school during the training period. Those who pass the entrance examinations for the regular course or for the training course will have their travel expenses paid by the school. Graduates will be given certificates of graduation and the government and industrial and commercial organizations will be requested to assist in placing the graduates in proper positions.
6. Registration was scheduled for the month of May, 1948.
7. The school officials include:

President: CHEN Te-sheng (陳德生)
Political Commissioner: YU Tai-cheng (于大成)
Education Chief: CHANG Chien-heng (張建恆)
Director of Port Arthur enrollment office: Wang Yun-liang (王雲良)

8. According to the bulletin, the Labor University will "educate us to protect the
